02/22/24	JTC	Review email from John Sweeney (Akorn consultant) re: BCBSIL Reduction in reserve; should try to understand what they mean by 'run off period' and the impact on the timing to return the funds BCBSIL is holding; "run off" may mean a claim comes in on Jan 31st and then BCBS takes 6 months going back and forth with the service provider before closing this out; if they will simply send the funds sitting in the account early next week then 2/1 is great. 12/27/23	JTC	Review email from Dave Doyle of Cozen with attachments re: draft motions; advise the deadline to assume/reject was extended to December 29 only for the "IT Contracts;" the contract with IWK was not included in the list of IT Contracts; all other contracts would have been rejected by operation of law; Sentiss seems aware of this fact; in the IWK motion, it neglects to mention that the deadline to assume or reject is December 29, which it mentioned in the Oracle motion	BKA416	0.10	91.50
12/27/23	SEF	Reviewing email chain with counsel for Sentiss re contract assumption/assignment issues forwarded by J. 12/28/23	JTC	Telephone conference with Lee Hogewood, Jonathan Baron and Ralph Williams for Sentiss re: review of requested Oracle assignment and IWK Motion to assign; on Oracle proposed Motion there are issues concerning the schedule of executory contracts which improperly includes the Veeva contract; should not be proposing to assign the Veeva contract given arrangements were necessary to clone the data for various purchasers; discuss access issue until June 30th for the Trustee and negotiate agreement concerning same; on IWK Motion advise Sentiss counsel that Motion needs to be under Section 363 as a transfer of a breached contract; will rework Motion to provide for same; negotiate for the extension of the TSA for an additional 45 days; reach agreement to file a Motion to extend the deadline for assumption and rejection of IT contracts for an additional 60 days	BKA416	0.50	457.50

06/26/24	JTC	Draft email to TTE Miller and Bill Homony (TTE's accountant) re: priority claim distribution; advise in the motion to pay priority claims if are going to include a reference to the release agreement and the assert that acceptance of the priority distribution will constitute a waiver of WARN and other statutory damages (assuming research confirms waiver enforceable) by those employees who signed release agreements then two items will be needed for the motion at a minimum, namely (1) identify those individuals who have signed release agreements and (2) identify that some portion of the priority distribution is a for severance; given that are unable to put into defined buckets and in light of current status of case, JTC inclined not to raise at this time in the motion to pay priority any issues related to the release agreement at this time, but rather simply include a reservation of rights to object to any additional claims asserted by these claimants in excess of the priority distribution currently being made; would need to be able to represent that the Trustee's review of the claims reveals that the claimants are entitled to priority at least in the amounts of the Allowed Priority Distribution Amount; request advise	BKA416	0.30	288.00

06/26/24	JTC	Review email from Bill Homony (TTE's accountant) re: priority claim distribution; advise most of the claimants were terminated on 2/23 and therefore would not have executed a release agreement; do not currently have a schedule setting forth solely the amount of claimed severance, it's either the only asserted basis for liability or part of a larger multi-basis assertion for liability for which amounts may or may not have been allocated specifically to a severance obligation; these claims are complex and are not capable of being put into defined buckets; as mentioned, a claim objection exhibit is being prepared for such claims on the basis that insufficient information is available to allow the Trustee to evaluate the appropriateness of the asserted liability; this will provide the claimants with an opportunity to clarify their claims.
